

Referrals

At the Henning Law Firm, P.C., we welcome referrals from other attorneys, law firms and professionals. We will work with referring counsel in any arrangement they choose so that they can stay involved in the case. We advance all case expenses and comply with applicable ethical rules in our referral relationships. Please contact us if you would like to discuss referring a case.

“Denise Henning has several special talents: clarity of expression, which comes from excellent legal logic, force of persuasion, which comes from years of legal experience, and dedication to her clients, which comes from her highest work ethics and a kind heart. The result is, many settlements and court victories that she achieves for her clients. I greatly admire Denise as a lawyer and a human being. In a situation when a loved one is hurt, I recommend Denise wholeheartedly as a strong and caring advocate.”

“When I recommend an attorney and their firm to others, I always think about whether I would want that attorney representing me. Because of this, I only recommend one plaintiff’s firm, The Henning Law Firm. I am confident that they will treat my referrals with the utmost professionalism and are very qualified to handle the most complex cases. Denise Henning is very well respected within the legal community and her credentials precede her in every courtroom. If you want the best, then Denise is the only way to go.”
