

Nancy A. Cline

Nancy A. Cline has devoted her career to helping people with their legal problems. She has over twenty-eight years experience and has worked as a paralegal for the Henning Law Firm, P.C. since its inception on February 1, 2002. Her work experience includes all types of personal injury and wrongful death cases involving product defects, vehicular negligence, aviation negligence and malpractice. She has also assisted clients in making their claims for damages for legal malpractice, employment discrimination and whistle-blower cases.

Nancy has been a member of the American Association for Justice, f/k/a Association of Trial Lawyers of America (ATLA) since 1992. In 2000, she was chosen as the ATLA Paralegal of the Year for the entire United States. She is also a member of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association, the Kansas City Paralegal Association where she has served for the past year on the board as Policy Director and the Association for Women Lawyers. She has a B.A. from Western Illinois University and has continued her legal education at William Jewell College Paralegal Program and at various seminars and conferences throughout the United States.

When not assisting in the practice of law, Nancy can be found spending time with her husband and two sons at many athletic events or at various travel destinations. She is also actively involved in her sons' education in the Park Hill School District and at Platte Woods United Methodist Church.
